

CHARLOTTE COALITION FOR A MORATORIUM NOW

WINNING CONVICTIONS AT ANY COST: WHY WE NEED A MORATORIUM ON THE DEATH PENALTY IN NORTH CAROLINA

SATURDAY
MAY 1, 2004
9 AM—12:30 PM

SPEAKERS:

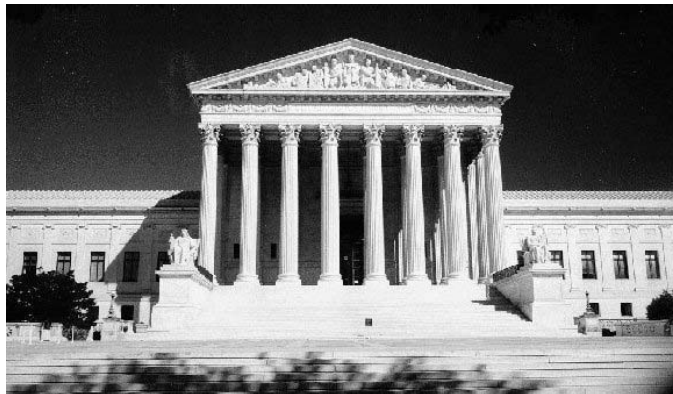

ANDY BAXTER
JOE CHESHIRE
DARRYL HUNT
PETE CUNNINGHAM

LOCATION:

Fellowship Hall of
First United Methodist Church
501 North Tryon Street
(between 8th and 9th Streets)
Free Parking in the Odell underground garage on 9th St.

For more information:

FUMC Phone: (704) 333-9081
CCMN Phone: (704) 532-6854
Website: ccmn2.tripod.com

Charlotte Coalition for a Moratorium Now and First United Methodist Church are proud to present a forum on the death penalty in NC. The day will be conducted so that people may feel free to able to come in, pick up information, listen and then leave whenever they wish. Please join us!

The program will be as follows:

- 9 to 9:30 am: Coffee, Rolls and Information Booths
- 9:30 to 9:35 am: Welcome by Dr. Ivan Pedan, Senior Minister of FUMC
- 9:35 to 9:55 am: Religious Perspective on the Death Penalty”
Reverend Andy Baxter, Mecklenburg Ministries
- 10 to 10:45 am: “Winning Convictions at Any Cost:
Have We Sacrificed Fairness and Integrity?”
Joe Cheshire, Lead Defense Attorney in Gell Trial
- 11 to 11:20 am: Personal Reflections”
Darryl Hunt, served 18 years for a rape and murder he did not commit
- 11:30 to 11:45 am: NC Legislative Perspective
Representative Pete Cunningham, District 107
- 11:50 to 12:30 am: Panel Discussion with all the speakers